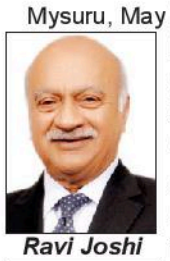
Ravi Joshi to deliver talk

'Israel-Iran Tensions: Will it lead to War?'



Ravi Joshi

Mysuru, May 2- Mysore Open Forum has organised a talk on the topic 'Israel-Iran Tensions: Will it lead to War?' by former Diplomat Ravi Joshi on May 5 (Sunday) at 10.30 am at its Kalpa Kshetra Auditorium, 581/1, Vijayanagar 4th Stage, 1st Phase, Mysuru.

Ravi Joshi retired after a distinguished service as Joint Secretary at the Cabinet Secretariat, Government of India, having served in Research & Analysis Wing (RAW) and the Indian Diplomatic Service. He is an alumnus of Mysore University (Political Science) and JNU, New Delhi.

After passing out of Indian Civil Service, he worked in Indian Ordnance Factories Service before moving to Ministry of Defence as Under-Secretary. He later joined the Indian External Intelligence Service, the RAW and served there for over 25 years. He has had three diplomatic assignments — in the Maldives, Kenya and Austria — during which he also served as India's Alternate Permanent Representative to two UN agencies — the United Nations Environment Program (UNEP) in Nairobi, Kenya and the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) in Vienna, Austria.

Since his retirement he has been a Visiting Fellow at the Observer Research Foundation (ORF), a pre-eminent Think Tank in New Delhi, which is ranked among the Top 10 in Asia today. He has been contributing regularly on the political affairs of the Maldives, Iran and West Asia to the ORF as well as to several print and online media organisations.

Ravi Joshi has studied the West Asian region, particularly these two countries, very closely for 4 years while serving in the RAW. He has visited Iran three times, Israel once and has interacted with the Security & Intelligence establishments of both countries.

Taking the Israel-Palestine conflict as the trigger for the present tensions in the region, he will examine how any escalation by Israel on Iranian proxies or territory could lead to a major war. He will also talk about the role of other major powers like the US, Russia, China and the likely response of India in case of a war.

The meeting is open to all.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Spirituality has become a buzzword. But, it is the most misunderstood concept. Spirituality has nothing to do with your lifestyle, vocation or location. It is an understanding of your real personality. The formula is human — desire = God. We all have desires. But the more desires you fulfil, the more you create. The truth is, desire has no place in life. You get what you deserve, not what you desire. Spirituality helps you gain merit. You become more deserving when you tap into your potential.

Even a talented footballer needs to learn the rules of the game to become an outstanding player. Similarly, Vedanta teaches you the rules of the game. This is absolutely essential to achieve success, be happy and realise your potential.

Vedanta helps achieve self-sufficiency, which results in wonderful relationships. You cease to live life like a creeper, dependent and miserable. You live like a magnificent banyan tree, majestic and independent. You love people unconditionally, with no expectation, no frustration and no bitterness.

Vedanta develops the intellect and gives clarity of thought. You understand your purpose in life and move towards it with determination and consistency. You grow into a towering personality. Everything in the world passes. The body ages and dies. All the wealth you accumulate so painstakingly can go in an instant. Relationships do not last. Intellectual ideas change. These changes traumatise you and leave you heartbroken. Only the Spirit within is permanent. It always was, always is and always will be in the future.

As you identify with Spirit and find your anchor in the permanent, the fluctuations in the world do not affect you. You enjoy the changes as you are no longer dependent on the world. You find happiness within that cannot be taken away by anything in the world. You become powerful, happy and independent.

Milan to ban ice cream after midnight

Milan: Milan is proposing a new law to ban ice cream after midnight in an effort to protect the "tranquillity" of residents. For many, a late-night gelato is a part of Italian culture, but this is in danger under a new law being introduced in the city.

A legislative starting paper has been filed by the city's local government and if passed it could see late-night ice creams banned as soon as next month.

Covering 12 districts, the proposal would ban all takeaway food, including pizza and drink after midnight in an effort to clamp down on noisy groups crowding on the streets of the Italian city, keeping local residents up.

Marco Granelli, Deputy Mayor, said: "The goal is to seek a balance between socialising and entertainment, and the peace and tranquillity of residents."

Dog missing from California found in Michigan

California: A dog missing in California since the summer turned up more than 2,000 miles away in suburban Detroit, Michigan.

Police in Harper Woods responded to a call about a stray dog last week, picked up the terrier mix and contacted an animal welfare group.

The Grosse Pointe Animal Adoption Society said it quickly discovered that the dog, named Mishka, had an identity chip implanted in her with information about her owners.

Mehrad Houman and his family live in San Diego but were planning to travel to Minnesota when the call came in. He landed there and then drove 10 hours to Michigan for a reunion with Mishka, the adoption group said on a Facebook post with pictures and video.

Mishka had wandered away from Houman's workplace, an auto garage, in July and never returned. Her collar had the family's phone number.

Red Alert

12 districts including Mysuru, Mandya to experience heatwave conditions

Bengaluru / Mysuru, May 2 (BCT)- As temperatures soar to unprecedented levels across northern, south and central Karnataka in recent days, India Meteorological Department (IMD) issued a heatwave alert for 12 districts spanning next five days.

According to IMD scientist C.S. Patil, the districts of Mysuru, Mandya, Ballari, Kalaburagi, Vijayapura, Raichur, Chitradurga, Davanagere, Kolar, Chikkaballapur, Tumakuru and Yadgir are anticipated to experience heatwave conditions.

From 8.30 am of May 1 to 8.30 am of May 2, Mysuru's maximum temperature was recorded at 40.8 degree Celsius while minimum temperature stood at 22.7 degree Celsius.

Furthermore, the Karnataka State Natural Disaster Monitoring Centre (KSNDMC) has raised the alarm by issuing a red alert, indicating severe heatwave conditions, for six districts. These include Bagalkot, Belagavi, Dharwad, Gadag, Haveri and Koppal, where temperatures are expected to range from 40 to 46 degrees Celsius from May 1 to 9.

Patil elaborated that these districts are witnessing exceptionally high temperatures compared to previous summers. "Upon analysing climate data, we've observed that several of these districts consistently record temperatures ranging between 41 and 43 degrees Celsius," he stated. "Additionally, the formation of a trough extending from Madhya Pradesh to South Interior Karnataka has disrupted wind patterns," he added.

KSNDMC also pointed out that when comparing maximum temperature recorded in Karnataka in the past seven years — between 2017 and 2024 — April 30, 2024 recorded the highest, 45.6 degrees Celsius. IMD also forecasts warm night conditions for next five days. In contrast to KSNDMC's 'red alert' for severe heatwave conditions, the IMD clarified that a severe heat (red) alert can only be issued when the actual maximum temperature surpasses 47 degrees Celsius.

Anticipated for May 6-7, the South Interior Karnataka and Malnad regions, encompassing Bengaluru and Mysuru, are expected to experience significant summer showers.

Cancel Prajwal's diplomatic passport: CM writes to PM

Bengaluru, May 2 (Agencies)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has written a letter to Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday, urging him to intervene through the Ministry of External Affairs to facilitate the return of tainted sitting Hassan MP Prajwal Revanna to India.

In his correspondence, Siddaramaiah asserted that Prajwal had fled the country upon sensing imminent arrest and had travelled abroad using a diplomatic passport. Highlighting the ongoing efforts of the Special Investigation Team (SIT) to probe numerous allegations against Prajwal, Siddaramaiah emphasised the paramount importance of his return to face investigation and legal proceedings under the country's laws.

Siddaramaiah implored PM Modi to direct the Ministry of External Affairs and the Home Ministry to swiftly cancel Prajwal Revanna's diplomatic passport.

Furthermore, he urged the Government to utilise diplomatic and law enforcement channels, both domestically and internationally, including cooperation with international Police agencies, to ensure the expeditious repatriation of the absconding MP to face the full consequences of the law.

Diplomatic passports are issued to diplomats and high-ranking Government officials for their international travel and official duties. They are typically provided to MPs, Ministers, diplomats and select Government officials.

Sex scandal

Lookout notice issued against Prajwal Revanna

SIT seeks Interpol assistance; Hassan MP to return to India only on May 16?

Bengaluru, May 2 (Agencies)- Pressure is mounting on Hassan MP Prajwal Revanna, suspended from JD(S) due to his alleged involvement in a sex scandal, to return to India as the Special Investigation Team (SIT) has issued a lookout notice to bring him back.

Prajwal

Interpol's assistance has been requested and it has been reported that the SIT will take Prajwal Revanna's custody when he returns on May 16. An earlier report said that Prajwal is anticipated to return to India from Germany on the night between May 3 and May 4.

Prajwal departed for Frankfurt on Apr. 27, a day after the first phase of Lok Sabha elections in Karnataka. His departure came after the announcement by the Congress Government of the SIT to probe the allegations against him.

Sources reveal that the SIT has issued a lookout notice for Prajwal in connection with the investigation into allegations of sexual misconduct. Prajwal was served a notice by the SIT on Tuesday to appear for questioning regarding the case on Wednesday. However, it has been reported that the lookout notice was issued due to his failure to appear for questioning.

The lookout notice instructs the Police and Government security agencies to detain Prajwal wherever he may be located. Reports suggest that lookout notices have been distributed to airports worldwide.

What is a lookout notice?

A lookout notice is issued to ensure that an individual who is absconding or wanted by law enforcement agencies is not able to leave the country. It is mostly used at immigration checkpoints at international airports and seaports by the immigration branch.

In certain cases, the Police can approach a court asking for the restriction of a person's movement outside the country, when that person is a suspect and there is an apprehension that they may not join the investigation at a later stage.

'Truth will prevail'

Breaking his silence on the matter, Prajwal expressed confidence on Wednesday that "truth will prevail." He stated, "As I am not in Bengaluru to attend the inquiry, I have communicated with CID, Bengaluru, through my advocate (about joining the probe)."

On Tuesday, the SIT issued a summons to Prajwal, the grandson of JD(S) Supremo and former PM H.D. Deve Gowda, to appear before it for questioning. Failure to comply would result in him being declared an 'absconder.' The probe agency has also summoned his father, Holenarasipur JD(S) MLA H.D. Revanna.

"In the notice served to my client, Prajwal, you (SIT) directed him to appear before you on Wednesday (May 1). Since he is out of Bengaluru, he requires at least seven days notice to appear before you," wrote Prajwal's counsel G. Arun on Wednesday to ADG, CID-SIT.

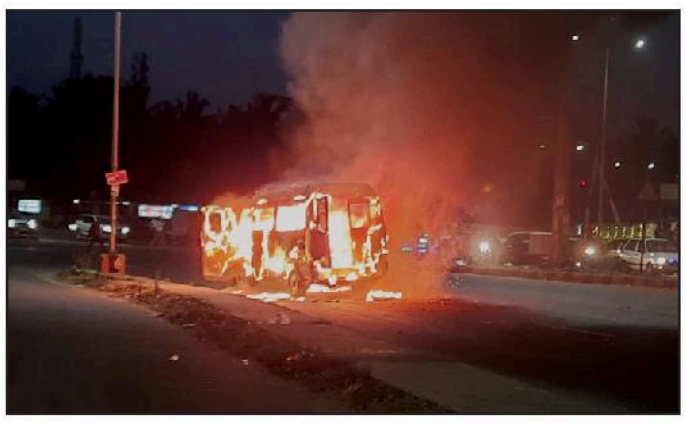
Ambulance gutted at Hebbal



Mysuru, May 2 (RK&KS)- A private ambulance caught fire and was completely gutted at the traffic signal light circle in front of Bharat Cancer Hospital on Tuesday evening.

The ambulance (KA-48-1315) belonged to one Jeevan Pinto of Virajpet, who had brought the vehicle to Mysuru for servicing. When Pinto was proceeding on the Ring Road after taking the vehicle from service, he was waiting at the signal at about 6.50 pm, when he heard a loud sound.

When Pinto and others got down from the vehicle, they saw fire. Fire and Emergency Services personnel from Hebbal Fire Station, who rushed to the spot, managed to extinguish the fire. But the ambulance was gutted by then. It is learnt that leakage of oxygen from the cylinder in the ambulance may have triggered the fire, but the exact cause will be known only after conducting investigation. Hebbal Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

VOICE OF THE READER

Why no action yet on pedestrian crossing signal lights?

Sir,

This has reference to my letter 'Make all pedestrian crossing signal lights functional' (SOM dated Mar.28). It's more than a month now since the signal lights have been installed, but for reasons best known to the authorities concerned, they have not been switched on.

This is causing a lot of inconvenience to pedestrians in the locality who find it very difficult to cross the roads safely, in the absence of pedestrian crossing signal lights. The authorities seem least concerned about this issue.

I once again request the concerned to switch on all the pedestrian crossing signal lights at the earliest before any untoward incident takes place at the busy junctions.

Abracadabra...

By K.B. Ganapathy

People's politician

V. Sreenivasa Prasad

A Tribute

I have known V. Sreenivasa Prasad since early 1979-80 as it was the time he was making news as a young, dynamic and daring politician from among the Dalits. He was the pride of Ashokapuram.

Star of Mysore and its sister publication Mysuru Mithra used to cover his political and social service activities regularly.

Over the years as he rose in his political career, I came closer to him. I have written about him in my personal column Abracadabra a number of times, including the time I spent in his MP's quarters in Delhi in late 1980s for a week as his guest.

It was during this time, I learnt of his humane qualities and sense of humour. He was a treasure house of anecdotes and a raconteur of his experience with other political leaders across party lines. He did not consider his MPship as his Lordship. He was highly refined in his speech even when angry and rarely raised his voice. However, if provoked he could be sharp like a razor's edge.

While in Delhi, I learnt, his MP's quarters was a virtual transit-camp for those who went to Delhi from Mysuru and Karnataka and he helped them all in every way — with Roti and Makhan, except Kapda, to wit. I was a witness for the rush of people in his quarters in the morning for breakfast till past 10 am. What a generous host. I nostalgically remember the exclusive dinner hosted by Azeez Sait, the popular and well-known politician of our city (father of present MLA Tanveer Sait), who was then an MP (elected from Dharwad South: 1984-1989), to me and Sreenivasa Prasad in his house on the occasion. Our dinner lasted till 2.30 am. That, I thought, was Delhi, the Power Centre of our country.

When Sreenivasa Prasad as a Congress leader became the Revenue Minister in 2013 and Siddaramaiah was the Chief Minister, it was as expected. But when Sreenivasa Prasad was dropped from the Cabinet after a couple of years in 2016, he was so deeply hurt that he quit the Congress party and later joined BJP. On that occasion, I wrote an Abracadabra dated 21st June 2016 under the title "Sreenivasa Prasad Vs Siddaramaiah: A case of Et tu Brute?"

Reading the article in Deccan Herald dated 1st May, 2024 by S. Narendra about Sreenivasa Prasad titled 'A rare politician,' I thought it must appear in Star of Mysore and Mysuru Mithra. It is published here alongside with Deccan Herald's permission and I thought I must add my own admiration for a gentleman politician while vouchsafing that what S. Narendra had written. My regret is that much as I wanted to attend his last journey I was unable to do so. Here is my tribute and salute to an ideal, people's politician. RIP Sreenivasa Prasad.

A rare politician

By S. Narendra

Sreenivasa Prasad, a Member of Parliament, who passed away on Monday (April 29, 2024), was a face of the Dalits and the marginalised. He was known for his stern administration, outspokenness and a strong commitment to social justice and integrity. He was liked and respected by leaders across party lines.

My encounter with Sreenivasa Prasad as a banker is a cherished memory. Back in the 1990s, Prasad visited our Housing Finance Branch Office in Mysuru and personally requested a modest loan of Rs. 5 lakh. A sitting MP personally visiting the office without prior notice and requesting a loan to buy a house in Jayalakshmipuram, Mysuru, baffled me.

Despite his status as an MP, Prasad rejected any special treatment and insisted on following standard procedures. We expedited the loan process and sanctioned it within three days and the registration was scheduled. Since the seller had approached the Sub-Registrar Office (SRO) regarding the transaction, the SRO officials contacted our bank to inform us that they could complete the "registration formalities" at our branch office for the convenience of the MP. However, Sreenivasa Prasad was furious upon learning about this special arrangement made by the Revenue Department. He firmly rejected the "special treatment" and insisted that no procedure be compromised. We completed the transaction as per his wishes. A rare breed indeed!

Remarkably, Sreenivasa Prasad's Secretary regularly checked on the status of his loan repayments to ascertain whether the post-dated cheques for the EMI of loan repayment were cleared. This continued until the loan was fully repaid! Such were the values practiced by Sreenivasa Prasad.

Prasad's compassionate side was equally remarkable. After the property registration, he visited our office to express his gratitude, bringing a box of sweets for the staff. In his interaction with the staff, he learned that many were bachelors living in small rented accommodations and eating out. He casually asked why they were eating out and not preparing their own food. The staff replied that they had no cooking "gas connections" as the agencies were reluctant to provide the facility for bachelors and had a huge waiting period. He immediately intervened by picking up the landline phone to contact the Bharat Gas Agency and explaining the staff predicament. Soon, the staff got their gas connections and were able to cook healthy meals at home. When the "beneficiaries" thanked him profusely, the unassuming MP responded that he had not done anything out of the way.

In 2000, during his tenure as Union Minister of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution in the Vajpayee Government, we sought his help in obtaining ISO certification for our Housing Finance Company, as it was in the service industry and not manufacturing. Prasad gave us a patient hearing, summoned his Ministerial colleagues/Secretaries and asked us to give a "presentation." Within six months, the concerned Government Department, in collaboration with the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS), brought out guidelines for ISO certification for the service industry and guidelines to suit finance companies. Within two years, our institution was the first Housing Finance Company in the country to secure the coveted ISO certification. Such was the administrative calibre and acumen of Sreenivasa Prasad.

These anecdotes are just a glimpse of Prasad's impact on ordinary people like myself. His legacy as a champion of the marginalised, regardless of caste, is sure to have left an indelible mark on society.

With Prasad's passing, we bid farewell to a principled politician and an advocate for the underprivileged. His legacy should inspire many.

Sex scandal

SIT forms three sub-teams

Bengaluru, May 2 (Agencies)- The Special Investigation Team (SIT), in possession of more than 2,900 sex videos, has formed three sub-teams to investigate serious crimes. The SIT consists of 18 senior Police officials and is headed by Additional Director General of Police and chief of CID, Bijay Kumar Singh.

Two senior women IPS Officers, Suman D. Pennekar and Mysuru SP Seema Latkar have also been made SIT members.

According to sources, the first team will be based in Hassan and record the confessions of the spate of victims. The second team will approach the case by focusing on the videos.

This team will verify the authenticity of the videos, the IP addresses from where they were first uploaded and how they were spread on social media. The third team will focus on investigating the whereabouts of the accused.

Red Corner Notice: According to SIT, a Red Corner notice, issued to extradite criminals or suspects who flee their home country, is also being prepared to ensure that Prajwal is brought back to India.

A Red Corner Notice is a request to the law enforcement authorities of Interpol's member countries to find and temporarily detain a person until extradition, surrender or a similar legal process can take place.

May Day: Fight for basic needs inevitable, says CITU President Jayaram

J. Jayaram, Mysuru District President of Centre of Indian Trade Unions (CITU), addressing the gathering during the May Day celebrations at Town Hall in city on Wednesday. Picture right shows a section of the audience.

Mysuru, May 2 (BS)- J. Jayaram, Mysuru District President of Centre of Indian Trade Unions (CITU), has given a call to the labourers for putting up an united fight for the basic infrastructural facilities like better food, health, education and job security among other facilities, to lead a sustainable life.

He was speaking during the May Day celebrations organised jointly by various Trade Unions like All India Trade Union Congress (AITUC), All India United Trade Union Centre (AIUTUC) and All India Central Council of Trade Unions (AICCTU) at Town Hall in the city on Wednesday.

"The May Day should act as an inspiration for us to retrospect over the condition of the fraternity. Everybody should have access to house, education and health which signify the importance of May Day. We should contribute towards bringing the Government that can safeguard the interest of labourers to power," said Jayaram.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who calls himself as a man with '56 inches chest' and 'Vishwaguru' has fixed the daily wage of labourers as Rs. 176. Such a decision can be expected from a person having no concern. Arvind Kejriwal, the Chief Minister of Delhi who worked towards building a better society with education, has been sent to jail. We have opposed such a dictatorial attitude even during the tenure of Congress Govt. and oppose now also, said Jayaram.

Trade Union leader H.R. Sheshadri said, "In the recent years, the joy associated with May Day has vanished and has been restricted to a symbolic event, triggering concerns about the same in the coming days. The Government has been amending the laws and working for the cause of corporates, doing nothing in favour of labourers."

"The number of permanent staff is dwindling while there is a rise in the number of temporary employees. Can we call this as development? The recent farmers chalo in Delhi is one of the best movements of the century, but the PM has failed to address the demands of farmers till date. While there is a rise in the assets of industrialists like Ambani and Adani, so also the number of people suffering from poverty. Lakhs of small businesses shut doors due to the impact of COVID-19 pandemic and we should understand the plight of labourers who were working there," said Sheshadri.

WORD OF THE DAY

Burgeon

Pronunciation: BER-jun.
Meaning: To burgeon is to grow or develop quickly — in other words to flourish, blossom or sprout.
Origin: Burgeon arrived in Middle English as burjonen, a borrowing from the Anglo-French verb burjuner, meaning "to bud or sprout." Burgeon is often used figuratively, as when writer Ta-Nehisi Coates used it in his 2008 memoir The Beautiful Struggle: "... I was in the burgeoning class of kids whose families made too much for financial aid but not enough to make tuition payments anything less than a war." Usage commentators have objected to the use of burgeon to mean "to flourish" or "to grow rapidly," insisting that any figurative use should stay true to the word's earliest literal meaning and distinguish budding or sprouting from subsequent growing. But the sense of burgeon that indicates growing or expanding and prospering (as in "the burgeoning music scene" or "the burgeoning international market") has been in established use for decades and is, in fact, the most common use of burgeon today.
Example: "From the quaint charm of its historic downtown to the dynamic energy of its burgeoning Arts District, Gilbert [Arizona] offers something for everyone." —Lux Butler, The Arizona Republic, 7 Mar. 2024.

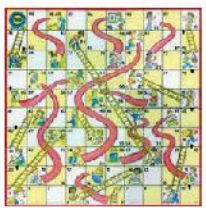
THE ODD WORD

Bandelet

Small flat moulding around a column.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Back to square one



Meaning: Going back to the beginning or starting over.
Origin: There are three widely reported suggestions as to the phrase's origin: BBC Commentaries - Early BBC radio commentaries did help listeners follow the progress of football and rugby games by notionally dividing the pitch into eight rectangles. Commentators described the play by saying which 'square' the ball was in. Snakes and Ladders or similar board games - The earliest citation of the phrase in print currently known is 1952, from the UK publication the Economic Journal: "He has the problem of maintaining the interest of the reader who is always being sent back to square one in a sort of intellectual game of snakes and ladders."
Hopscotch - This playground game is played on a grid of numbered squares. The precise rules of the game vary from place to place but it usually involves players hopping from square to square, missing out the square containing their thrown stone. They usually go from one to eight or ten and then back to square one.
Example: "I failed at calculus, so I guess it's back to square one."

QUOTE BOX

I measure the progress of a community by the degree of progress which women have achieved. — Dr. B.R. Ambedkar
